25X1C

1. This memorandum is for your information only. It contains the qualified endorsement of the Office of Security of the security proposals of [REDACTED] for future DDI operations [REDACTED]

2. Mindful of the requirements to maintain Station business at as high a level as possible within requirements to reduce personnel and the general recommendation of the Inspector General, the Office of Security offers a qualified endorsement of the proposed plans. In so doing, the Office of Security notes that:

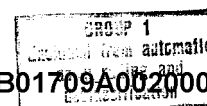

a) Virtually all of the procedures recommended last summer by the Inspector General and the Office of Security have been put into effect without loss of efficiency.

25X1C c) The documents will be retained
25X1C under the control of the DDI Officer within a 25X1C proposed new [REDACTED] in the main [REDACTED] The old area [REDACTED] will be closed.

25X1C d) [REDACTED] will keep the situation under review.

25X1C 3. The Office of Security's endorsement of the security aspects of the proposed future DDI operation [REDACTED] is contingent upon the following requirements:

25X1C a) A security indoctrination is to be provided by the Office of Security to the new DDI
assignee [REDACTED]

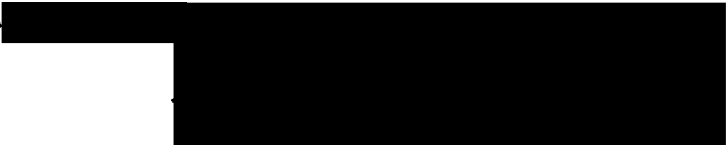

25X1C b) A satisfactory security inspection is conducted of the proposed [REDACTED]
25X1C [REDACTED]

25X1C c) A monthly accountability check of all
25X1C [REDACTED] documents retained [REDACTED]
25X1C [REDACTED] is established pending outcome of:

25X1C d) A review of the possibility of removing at Headquarters all sensitive intelligence in the TALENT category from OSR publications bearing 25X1C [REDACTED] which are to be retained [REDACTED]
25X1C [REDACTED]

TCS-34205-70

25X1C 4. It is the opinion of the Office of Security that this qualified endorsement will not hamper either the near or long term DDI operation
